MR. RANDOLPH EIDE

"The Ohio Bell's" New President and His Long Career in the Telephone Industry.

Mr. Randolph Eide, operating vice-president of The Ohio Bell Telephone Co., was recently elected president and J. F. Carroll, Jr., a vice-president, resigned to accept the presidency of The Indiana Bell Telephone Co. Archibald J. Allen, assistant vice-president of The American Telephone and Telegraph Co., New York City, was elected a vice-president to succeed Mr. Eide who has been connected with the telephone industry in Ohio since May, 1917, when he became general traffic superintendent of the former Central Union Telephone Co. at Columbus. Mr. Eide was born at Lee, Ill., and is a graduate (1910) of the University of Illinois. In 1911, he entered the telephone business as a traffic student with the New York Telephone Co. and served in various traffic capacities with The Southwestern Bell Telephone Co., St. Louis, and The Michigan Bell Telephone Co., Detroit, before coming to Ohio. When The Ohio Bell Telephone Co. was formed in 1921, Mr. Eide became its general traffic superintendent, which post he held until November, 1923, when made general manager. In 1925 he was elected vice-president and general manager, and when the company was divided into two operating areas on January 1, 1928, he was made vice-president in charge of operation. Mr. Eide is married and has four children. Their home is at 2102 Lamberton Rd., Cleveland Heights.

JOHN J. PARKER CONFIRMATION!

Where Ohio's U. S. Senators Stand in the Battle, Now On.

Office of The Gazette.
Cleveland, O., April 9, '30.
Senator Simeon D. Fess,
Senator Roscoe C. McCulloch,
Washington, D. C.

Dear Senators:—I am enclosing a clipping which I wish you would read carefully as soon as possible. If The Greensboro, N. C. Daily News of April 19, '30, is correctly quoted, Judge John J. Parker's nomination for membership on the U. S. Supreme court bench is a mistake, to say the least, which President Hoover ought to be made acquainted with in time for him to withdraw it.

Trusting you will give this matter the careful consideration it surely is entitled to, I am

Yours respectfully,
Harry C. Smith.

Senator McCulloch's Answer.
United States Senate.
Washington, D. C., April 15, '30.
Hon. Harry C. Smith,
Editor, Gazette, Cleveland, O.

Dear Mr. Smith:—I am in receipt of your letter, with clipping, in regard to the confirmation of John J. Parker as an associate justice of the U. S. Supreme Court.

I am very glad to have your views in regard to this matter. You may rest assured that I will analyze the record before the judiciary committee carefully, and the views set forth in your letter in regard to Judge Parker and his record will have my serious consideration.

Sincerely yours,
Roscoe C. McCulloch.

Senator Fess "Sidesteps."
United States Senate.
Washington, D. C., April 11, '30.
Hon. Harry C. Smith,
Editor, Gazette, Cleveland, O.

My dear Mr. Smith:—In answer to your letter of April 9, permit me to enclose a letter which I have recently written concerning the confirmation of Judge Parker.

Yours very truly,
Simeon D. Fess.

(The Senator's enclosure was a copy of a letter he sent to Thomas J. Donnelly of Columbus, O., which had reference to organized labor's objection to the confirmation of Judge Parker, and had no reference to our people's objection to the Parker confirmation.—Editor.)

Nutter Asks Watson for Public Vote.

Senator James Watson,
Washington, D. C.

The Negroes of New Jersey are unalterably opposed to the confirmation of Judge Parker. If confirmed we will seek revenge at the polls in the next general election. A Republican Senator cannot be elected in New Jersey with the Negro vote against him, particularly when he is dry.

President Hoover read the Negro out of the party, tried to imprison Perry Howard and other Negro leaders and now he is trying to condone disfranchisement and lynching by the appointment of Judge Parker on the U. S. Supreme Bench.

We appeal to you to vote against his confirmation because you have been our friend and a friend of justice. Give us a public vote so we may count noses. We await your verdict.

Bori Stars Thrice in Cleveland's Metropolitan Opera Week

LUCREZIA BORI

PONSELLE–BORI BOURSKAYA–CORONA

Tibbett, Swarthout and Other Well-known Artists to Star in Cleveland's Great Musical Festival Next Week.

Thousands of Clevelanders and residents of Northern Ohio will hear one, two or more operas by the Metropolitan Opera Company of New York in its Cleveland engagement at Public Hall, next week—May 5 to May 10—the gala event of the season.

At the opera ticket office at Lyon & Healy's, the brand new opera, "Sadko", the Friday evening performance, and the Tuesday night presentation, "Louise", an outstanding revival of this season, are very popular with ticket buyers. Rosa Ponselle, the great dramatic soprano of the Metropolitan, has again showed herself a box-office attraction in the number of requests to hear her in the opening, "La Gioconda", and in the first opera of Wednesday's double-billing, "Cavalleria Rusticana".

More than ever, out-of-town opera visitors have taken advantage of the four operas to be presented on the last two days of the week by special arrangement of the Northern Ohio Opera Association. In this manner, the association enables visitors to hear the maximum of grand opera with a stay-over of only one night. These visitors will get to hear "Carmen", Friday afternoon; "Sadko", Friday evening; "La Traviata", Saturday afternoon, and "Il Trovatore" on Saturday evening, the closing performance.

PARKER, A "WEAKLING".

Washington, D. C.—Senator Fess took as his text in the U. S. Senate, Tuesday, a hostile newspaper editorial, saying that Judge Parker was but an incident and that the court was the issue. Fess said he accepted that issue. Senator Henry F. Ashurst of Arizona, Democrat, crossed swords with the Ohio senator, pointing out that he (Ashurst) had, during his senatorial service, voted for the confirmation of a long list of U. S. Supreme Court justices, including the late Chief Justice Taft, and the present Chief Justice, Mr. Hughes. He voted for them, Ashurst said, because they were men of "intellect, courage, character, capability."

"Now," cried Ashurst, "when a man who has neither courage nor great learning is put before us, the senator accuses us of trying to destroy the Supreme Court because we won't swallow weaklings."

A Lifer Is Sent $500.

Columbus, O.—A check for $500, as a reward for his description of the penitentiary fire which was broadcast over a large chain of radio stations, has been sent to Convict X46812 by Wm. S. Paley, president of the Columbia Broadcasting system. The convict, who was the radio star, is revealed as Otto V. Gardner, a member of the race serving a life sentence for first degree murder, of which he was convicted 12 years ago. He is a graduate of the Moody Bible Institute and secretary of the Protestant church in the penitentiary.

GOLD STAR MOTHERS!

(Special to The Gazette)

Jersey City, N. J.—The report is current that this government has made preparations to send the Gold Star Mothers to France to visit their sons' graves, The Unknown Soldier's grave and other places of interest but in this preparation the segregation idea prevails. It is said that these mothers go in three ships but rumor has it that our Gold Mothers may go only upon one ship. Most assuredly the best company our Mothers can be in is the company of one another, but in the opinion of those who are responsible for this preparation our Gold Star Mothers are not the equals of the other Gold Star Mothers, hence they must be given separate boats so that "superiors" will not be contaminated with "inferiors." Be it understood that real Negroes are happy to be with each other at all times and everywhere but these same Negroes resent the implication that they are inferior. One thing this country is "good" for is to segregate the Negro and to give him inferior accommodations but charge him the same other groups pay for the better accommodations. If the War Department is doing this kind of ugly work, it should be exposed. If this country is vile enough to send Gold Star Mothers across the seas and brand them as unworthy of the best the world can give in association, accommodation and humane treatment, this country is a traitor to its own and as such merits the disproval of all right-thinking persons.

There is no law to make our Gold Star Mothers go to France and their own self-respect should make them refuse, if they are not in every way given every consideration other groups are given. The Unknown Soldier may be a Negro hero. To have his mother come to France and receive a badge of inferiority when the blood of that Unknown Negro Soldier made the world safe, is to disturb the quiet repose of the faithful hero. If the President of this nation permits this injustice and scandalous thing to happen, Negro citizens en masse will remain away from the White House until another more just occupies it.

BEE MASON ACQUITTED!

Women Jurors Stand By Her From Start to Finish—The Men Jurors Balk at First.

Bee Mason, age 25, was acquitted of manslaughter in Common Pleas court, last week. The jury of seven men and five women were out three hours and took six ballots before reaching their verdict. Bee shot John Puhalla (white), age 28, a visitor at her house in E. 40th St., on Feb. 21. He died from his wounds, a few days later, and left a signed statement, naming Bee Mason as the person who shot him. The jury stood ten to two for acquittal. Throughout the deliberations, the women jurors were steadfast in her favor, while the two men held out, for a time, for a guilty verdict. Her attorneys, Tim Long (white), W. R. Green and L. O. Payne admitted that she had shot Puhalla but contended successfully that she had done so in self-defense, using Puhalla's gat. After Bee's release by the county authorities, she was taken to police station by officers who believed a suspicious person charge was pending against her. It had been nolled; so she was discharged. Bee was referred to as "the queen of the underworld" and "the queen of E. 40th St."

Another Lynching.

Walhalla, S. C.—Sheriff John Thomas was in a hospital here, Apr. 24, recovering from wounds sustained, the night before, when he was overpowered by a mob of 200 white brutes who broke into the county jail and carried Allen Green two miles from town, where they riddled him with bullets. Green was held on suspicion only of attacking a girl (white). Thomas was struck over the head and seriously injured when he attempted to protect his prisoner. One man, John Sanderson, has been arrested on suspicion of having lead the lynchers.

CIVIL SERVICE.

The local board of civil service commissioners held an examination, yesterday, May 2, for positions of garbage-plant-helpers in the service of the city. This is the "limit." The Gazette never has favored placing under civil service positions that can be held by any average person. Only positions requiring technical knowledge or lengthy experience in the work should be placed under civil service. To do otherwise is closing the door of employment to thousands of poor people who must work for a living and who never had an opportunity to prepare themselves for any position except hard work. Of course the writer is not criticizing the city civil service commission, which undoubtedly is required to do what it has done by the City Charter which ought to be changed in this respect as well as others.

BALLOU, AGAIN!

City Tractioner Ballou has again submitted his request, to the city council's committee on street railways, for the elimination of the Central Ave. car-line, basing his request on its "lack of traffic." He does not say, however, that this "lack of traffic" is the direct result of the miserable service he has given the car-riders of that section of the city, particularly in the last year. Nor does he call attention to the fact that the Central Ave. line was the second best paying line in the city, two years ago, according to the Cleveland Railway Co.'s public announcement at the time. And it would be one of the best paying lines in the city today, if the proper service were given its patrons, many of whom were forced, months ago, to patronize the parallel lines, Cedar and Scovill, because of the miserably poor service of the Central Ave. line.

JUDGE PARKER SPEAKS.

Judge John J. Parker of North Carolina, President Hoover's appointee for a place on the bench of the U. S. Supreme court, denies the charge that he "ever advocated denying Negroes the right to participate in the election in cases where they were qualified to do so", and that he "advocated denying them any other of their rights under the constitution and laws of the United States." He also says, having reference to his 1920 campaign for the governorship of North Carolina: "My effort then was to answer those who were seeking to inject the race issue into the campaign under a charge that the Republican party in North Carolina intended to organize the colored people and restore conditions of the reconstruction era. I knew the painful effect of such a campaign and sought to avoid it." All of which, in the face of the charges made against him by those members of the race who are in a position to know whereof they speak, is quite sufficient to condemn his candidacy for a position upon the U. S. Supreme court bench. "Restore the conditions of the reconstruction era!" Ridiculous! The judge's "explanation" doesn't explain, but does show that he is far from being of the mental caliber to justify the U. S. Senate's confirmation of his appointment to membership on the U. S. Supreme court bench.

"JIM CROW NEGRO" REPUBLICANS.

Dr. Emmet J. Scott, Dr. John R. Hawkins and other more or less prominent Afro-American Republicans at the nation's capital, are begging recognition of a "jim-crow" auxiliary organization to the Republican National committee after having been turned down flat, they say, by the Hon. Claudius Huston of Tennessee, chairman of the Republican National committee, and President Herbert Hoover who refused to see them or consider their "letters and program submitted". In sheer desperation, it seems, Doctors Hawkins and Scott and "Muny" Judge James A. Cobb carried their discontent and dissatisfaction to Postmaster General Walter F. Brown, an Ohioan, who has given them a little encouragement, they say. The result has been a meeting of the Hawkins-Scott faction, at the nation's capital, which elected Dr. Hawkins chairman and Chas. E. Mitchell of West Virginia, secretary, thus serving notice on the Principal R. R. Moton faction, prominent members of which are Bob Church of Tennessee and Perry Howard of Mississippi, that they are not wanted except in very subordinate capacities. How either faction can at this time warm up to President Herbert Hoover, Chairman Claudius Huston or the Republican National committee, in the face of their miserable treatment of our people, is one of the conundrums we are unable to solve. It sure looks like the more you kick some "jim-crow" political "Negroes" the more supine and docile they get. Begging for "jim-crow handouts" does not arouse in them even a feeling of shame. Lord, have mercy!

"SOCIAL EQUALITY".

"We do not seek social equality through the abolition of discrimination in this restaurant, but simply seek justice and our legal rights that are provided for by the statutes," said the Hon. Perry B. Jackson in his plea in a civil rights case, on trial recently in a local court room. When he used the word "we" he may have been speaking for himself and his client, but surely was not speaking for the intelligent of the race. Indeed, we are inclined to feel that Mr. Jackson was merely catering to the prejudiced of the whites in the court room, which may have included the judge and the jury, because his statement is not only untrue, but calculated to prove harmful. In the first place, there is no such thing as "social equality." What is meant when that term is used is needed and sought by the intelligent of our people because they know that we need it just as much as other groups or classes in order to make the progress that will enable us to keep pace with them. Mr. Jackson's statement is a very pernicious one (a two-edged sword cutting both ways) which ought not to be used by him and other intelligent members of the race who understand how very harmful it is when made in the hearing of members of other groups or classes than our own. We feel sure that in Mr. Jackson's case, it was but "a slip of the tongue" which will not be repeated.

PRIME SPORT NEWS

Carnera "Out of Luck".

Louisville, Ky.—A match between Primo Carnera, 285-pound Italian boxer, and Ed (Bearcat) Wright, 225-pound "Afro" of Omaha, Neb., scheduled for May 16, eve of the Kentucky Derby, has been canceled at a conference of the American Legion and the Kentucky State Athletic Board of Control "because of the questionable bouts in which Carnera has been engaged."

The Kid Drubs Erickson, Again.

Toronto, Ont., Ca.—"Kid Chocolate", Afro-Cuban featherweight, made his Canadian debut here, Monday night and again easily gained the decision over Johnny Erickson (white) of New York in a ten-round bout at the Coliseum. It was Chocolate's third victory over the New Yorker. The featherweight sensation gave Erickson a thorough trouncing from start to finish and nearly knocked him out in the last round. Erickson was taking a terrific lacing when the final bell sounded. Chocolate weighed 124½, Erickson 123.

"Black Bill", Chocolate's Cuban stablemate, scored a decisive victory over Routier Parra (white), Chilean flyweight, in a six-rounder. Johnny Goodrich, Toledo (O.) flyweight, outpointed Harry Hill of Montreal in six rounds. Both "white".

THE FRENCH GRATEFUL

Present Our 372d Inf. Regiment With a Standard of Colors—Units in Attendance.

Columbus, O.—Major General Thenault, military attache of the French embassy in Washington, D. C., presented a standard of colors to the 372nd Inf. April 16, in Franklin Park, on behalf of the French government for heroic service during the World War when it was attached to the French army. It is the only national guard regiment authorized to bear a foreign decoration on its colors, having been awarded the French Croix de Guerre with palm. The presentation was made to the Governor who accepted on behalf of the state of Ohio and in a brief address lauded the enviable record the regiment made while serving in France, Major Howard C. Gilbert, of the O. N. G., accepted the decoration from the Governor for the regiment. State Senator Paul Herbert, a World War veteran, was master of ceremonies. Following the presentation of the colors, veterans of the Spanish-American War, the World War, and our units from Columbus, Cincinnati and Cleveland passed in review before Major Thenault, the Governor, and staff.

OHIO'S MOB VIOLENCE ACT

OR ANTI-LYNCHING LAW LEADS THE COUNTRY IN EFFECTIVE LEGISLATION

Against the Mob and Lynch-Murder—Three Years' Work of a Member of the Race—Also His Ohio Civil Rights Law.

Our mob-violence or anti-lynching bill was introduced in the Ohio legislature in 1894 and re-introduced in 1896. It took the Hon. Harry C. Smith, editor of The Gazette, just three years to secure its enactment into law. The Ohio Supreme Court has several times upheld the constitutionality of the law and it has been very effective. Illinois, Pennsylvania and New Jersey have followed Ohio's lead and enacted mob violence or anti-lynching laws which are copies of our Ohio law. Several other northern states and at least one border state (Kentucky) have also enacted anti-lynching laws, in recent years, like Pennsylvania and New Jersey. The Ohio law follows:

MOBS.

Section
6278. "Mob" and "lynching" defined.
6279. "Serious injury" defined.
6280. Damages in case of assault.
6281. Damages in case of lynching.
6282. Damages recoverable by legal representative of victim of lynching
6283. Person suffering death or injury by mob trying to lynch another.
6284. Limitations of action.
6285. Order to include recovery and costs in tax levy.
6286. Guardian's custody, etc., fees.
6287. County's right of action against member of mob
6288. County's right of action against another county.
6289. Non-relief from prosecution.

Section 6278. A collection of people assembled for an unlawful purpose and intending to do damage or injury to any one, or pretending to exercise correctional power over other persons by violence and without authority of law, shall be deemed a "mob" for the purpose of this chapter. An act of violence by a mob upon the body of any person shall constitute a "lynching" within the meaning of this chapter. (93 v. 161 2.)

Section 6279. The term "serious injury," for the purpose of this chapter, shall include such inquiry as permanently or temporarily disables the person receiving it from earning a livelihood by manual labor. (93 v. 161 3.)

Section 6280. A person taken from officers of justice by a mob and assaulted with whips, clubs, missiles or in any other manner, may recover, as hereafter provided, a sum not to exceed one thousand dollars as damages from the county in which the assault is made. (93 v. 161 4.)

Section 6281. A person assaulted and lynched by a mob may recover, from the county in which such assault is made a sum not to exceed five hundred dollars; or, if the injury received therefrom is serious, a sum not exceeding one thousand dollars; or, if such injury result in permanent disability, to earn a livelihood by manual labor, a sum not to exceed five thousand dollars. (93 v. 12 5.)

Section 6282. The legal representative of a person dying from injuries received from lynching by a mob, may recover of the county in which such injury occurred, a sum not to exceed five thousand dollars damages for such unlawful killing. Such sum shall be applied to the maintenance of the family and education of the minor children of such person so lynched, if any survive him, until such children are of legal age, and then be distributed to the survivors, share and share alike, the widow receiving an amount equal to a child's share. If there be no widow or minor children surviving such decedent, such sum shall be distributed among the next of kin according to the laws of the distribution of the personality of an intestate. Such sum so recovered shall not be a part of the estate of such person so lynched, nor be subject to any of his liabilities. (93 v. 162 6.)

Section 6283. A person suffering death or injury from a mob attempting to lynch another person shall come within the provisions of this chapter. He or his legal representatives shall have a like right of action as one purposely injured or killed by such a mob. (93 v. 162 6.)

Section 6284. Action for the recoveries provided for in this chapter must be commenced, within two years from the date of such lynching, in any court having original jurisdiction of an action for damages for malicious assault. (93 v. 162 7.)

Section 6285. An order to the commissioners of a county, against which such recovery is had, to include it with the costs of action, in the next succeeding tax levy for such county, shall be a part of the judgment in every such case. (93 v. 162 8.)

Section 6286. If the decedent so lynched has minor children surviving him, the fund shall be turned over to a regularly appointed guardian. Such guardian shall administer such fund under the direction of the probate judge, allowing not more than five hundred dollars for counsel fees in the action for such recovery. (93 v. 162 9.)

Section 6287. The county, in which a lynching occurs, may recover the amount of a judgment and costs against it in favor of the legal representatives of a person killed or seriously injured by a mob from any of the persons composing such mob. A person present, with hostile intent, at such lynching shall be deemed a member of the mob and be liable to such action. (93 v. 162 10.)

Section 6288. If a mob carries a prisoner into another county, or comes from another county to commit violence on a prisoner brought from such county for safekeeping, the county in which the lynching is committed may recover the amount of the judgment and costs from the county from which the mob came, unless there was contributory negligence on the part of officials of such county in failing to protect such prisoner or dispurse such mob. (93 v. 163 11.)

Section 6289. This chapter shall not relieve a person concerned in such lynching from prosecution for homicide or assault for engaging therein. (93 v. 163 12.)

OUR OHIO CIVIL RIGHTS LAW

Upon the request of many readers of The Gazette we print below the text of the Hon. Harry C. Smith's Ohio Civil Rights law which the editor had enacted while a member of the 71st General Assembly, in 1894:

The General Code of Ohio:

Sec. 12940. Whoever, being the proprietor or his employee, keeper or manager of an inn, restaurant, eating house, barber-shop, public conveyance by land or water, theater or other place of public accommodation and amusement, denies to a citizen, except for reasons applicable alike to all citizens and regardless of race or color, the full enjoyment of the accommodations, advantages, facilities or privileges thereof, shall be fined not less than fifty dollars nor more than five hundred dollars, or imprisoned not less than thirty days nor more than ninety days, or both.

Sec. 12941. Whoever violates the next preceding section shall also pay not less than fifty dollars nor more than five hundreds dollars to the person aggrieved thereby to be recovered in any court of competent jurisdiction in the county where such offense was committed.

This law has repeatedly been held constitutional and good law by the Ohio Supreme court. The trouble is our people will not use it as often as they should, but expect it to do for them what they should and must do for themselves, under it, in the courts.

Lucrezia Bori, the great lyric soprano of the Metropolitan Opera Company, will be heard in three operas during Cleveland's seventh spring opera festival, May 5 to May 10. She will have the title role in "Louise," when that revival is presented May 6, the role of "Mimi" in the delightful "La Boheme" and will sing the "Violetta" in "La Traviata."

Born in Valencia, in Spain, she made her first public appearance at the age of six at a benefit for the veterans of the Spanish-American War. She is of the house of Borgia.

"I OWE IT ALL TO HI-JA"

How wonderful it is to be beautiful! To have hair that is long, soft and silky—hair that, when bobbed, falls in graceful curls, charmingly framing the face—hair that scents the air with a dainty, mysterious perfume.

Is it any wonder that such women are beloved?

Gladys Robinson, famous leading lady of "The Smart Set", has such hair and says of it, "I owe it's beauty to Hi-Ja Quinine Hair Dressing. Without this wonderful product I would be lost. It is the best thing of its kind I have ever tried and since I am an actress and one who must be as beautiful as possible all the time, I have naturally used many products."

GOLD STAR MOTHERS.

Washington, D. C.—Editor Wm. A. Johnson of the Toledo (O.) New Era, a world-war veteran, on April 19 lodged a formal protest-petition signed by four thousand ex-service men and others, and twenty-three of our "gold-star" mothers of Indiana, Ohio and Michigan, against the proposed plan to segregate them in one ship en route to Europe to view the last resting places of their sons killed in action during the world war. Johnson claims that his protest-petition is endorsed by an Ohio Laymen's league, representing 25,000 Baptists and civic organizations.

In Holy Memory

MEMORIAL day is with us again, May 30. This date marks the sixty-first year that the Grand Army of the Republic has observed the day in honor and memory of comrades who "gave their lives that that nation might live." The very fact that more than three score years have passed since General Logan issued his famous Order No. 11 creating the day must cause us to remember that the comrades of the Grand Army who still survive must be aged men, all of them well beyond four score years. In many places the day seems to have taken on a new and different significance as a new and younger generation takes charge and carries out its own ideas of what constitutes a proper observance of the day.

But where the Grand Army is still able to carry on, or where its wishes are observed, it will be conducted in the quiet and dignified manner that has ever marked its keeping of the day. This day is in memory of the vast number who gave their lives in defense of the flag and to preserve this Union.

"Let us then at the appointed time gather round their sacred remains and garland the passionless mounds above them with the choicest flowers of springtime; let us raise above them the dear old flag that they saved from dishonor; let us in this solemn presence renew our pledges to aid and assist those whom they have left among us, a sacred charge upon a nation's gratitude—the soldier's and sailor's widow and orphan."

So should it be on all Memorial days. Let the young give close attention to whatever may be done or said by the veterans themselves, for all will be memories stored in the pages that men call history. It will give them power some day to thrill young hearts to say that they saw and heard men of the Grand Army of the Republic as they marched and spoke in some day of the long ago—their Memorial day.

YOU KNOW ME, AL
It Might Work

Friend Al.
I can't tell whether Mack is kidding me or not, but he bawled me out yesterday about not fielding my position when he hires a lot of old men and runts and then expects the pitcher to play the whole infield. You know I'm used of playing with man sized infielders, and I don't know what a pitcher can do on a club when he is up to his hins in midgets all the time. But if Mack thinks he can send me back to the bushes, he don't know I am Kid Dugan's manager so what do I care. I am writing this in my B.V.D.'s because my pants are being pressed. There is a dance tonight.
Yours,
Jack Keefe.

The second act featured Bessie Brown, Billy Banks, Mrs. Al Waldron, Vergie Richards, Al Jenkins orchestra and several dancing choruses.

The anniversary celebration, last week, at Messiah Baptist church, Rev. B. J. Prince, pastor, was a great success. In addition to a neat sum of money received, the church presented Rev. and Mrs. B. J. Prince the balance of the money due on a 7-passenger Lincoln car, the down payment on which they had already made. Rev. R. A. Jones of Akron gave $25. The ministers of the different churches were all present and on time. Rev. and Mrs. Prince wish to thank all who participated in the affair.

The Buckeye Dental society held a special meeting, last week, at its president, Dr. Jesse T. Bridgeman's office. The program included a clinic on new and improved plate materials and the latest models and methods in gold castings. Demonstrations made by Mr. Crutchfield of R. & R. Laboratories. The society's membership includes: Drs. J. T. Bridgeman, pres.; S. P. Berry, sec.; C. M. Robinson, G. Haynes, H. E. Gregory, J. A. Harris, A. M. Gibson, J. E. Levy, H. W. Hunter and T. D. Reynolds.

The resolution to purchase fireworks for a city July 4 celebration, this year, recalls rumors of the July 4, 1929, celebration. It is claimed that nearly all the fire-works, purchased for that occasion, was not used because of the inclement weather but saved and used to attract a crowd to the Hopkins or anti-Davis Amendment meeting held at Brookside park during the amendment campaign, last year. This matter should be thoroly investigated and will be because Councilman F. W. Walz is "on the job."

Always alert in their efforts for betterment our brokers, composing the Cleveland Real Estate association, held a very interesting meeting at the R. F. W. realty office, 8307 Cedar Ave., last Thursday. T. D. Auble, trustee of the main real estate board, gave a very informing address on real estate organization, and Donald Bachart, acting secretary of the board, also spoke. They answered a barrage of questions. R. Riffe and C. Robinson served an appetizing lunch to the members. The meeting, this Thursday, was in the Starlight Realty Co. offices, Central Ave.

Last week, Wednesday, the State Supreme court refused Ex-Councilman Thomas W. Fleming a re-hearing of his appeal for a new trial, but his attorney, Alex H. Martin, who was in Columbus at the time, on application was granted a ten-day execution of sentence on the representation that the case would be carried to the U. S. Supreme court. He did not, however, make clear the federal question involved. If the stay had not been granted, Fleming would have had to begin serving his sentence of two years and nine months in the Ohio penitentiary, the first of the week.

Appellate Judge Willis Vickery praised the work of President Hoover's "lily-white" commission to Haiti, and its report, at St. James', Sunday afternoon, and said: "The next six years (in Haiti) should be devoted to rehabilitation and getting the government back to the people. Then when the United States gives over the governmental reins in 1936 Haiti will be ready for self-government." Some one should whisper to the judge that Haiti has been "ready for self-government" for about a century, and incidentally remind him of the fact that that is more than can be said of Mexico and several South American and European countries.

Wm. Burdock, convict No. 61259, of 3833 Woodland Ave., Cleveland, who was burned to death in the Penitentiary fire, last week Monday, was refused free burial in Town Hill cemetery, known as Memorial Park cemetery. It was advertised on the front page of local daily newspapers, last week, that all those burned to death in the Pen. fire whose relatives or folk didn't have funds for burial, would be given free burial in the Memorial Park cemetery. Slaughter Bros. called them and asked for a grave for Burdock. When they learned that Burdock was "colored", they refused to give him a grave, but the man offered to donate $25 to put him in a cemetery "where colored were buried." Memorial Park cemetery is the only local cemetery that bars our people. Our embalmers at Columbus embalmed "white" as well as "colored" bodies.

City Tractioner Ballou has resubmitted his request for the elimination of the Central Ave. line, on which, he said, service has been slashed so much during the last year, because of "lack of traffic", that its revenue does not warrant further operation. The "lack of traffic" has been caused by the miserably poor service on the line, and Tractioner Ballou knows this, altho he does not say it. If "The Blossom Triplets" (Councilmen George, Payne and Bundy) could be induced to stop fighting Tom and Lethia Fleming long enough to do something, and would "cut out their four-flushing", they could get the patrons of that line better service. Something, they ought to do. Unless they do wake up and get busy very soon, the cars will be taken off Central Ave. and the street made an automobile thorofare to connect with the Lorain-Central bridge, when completed.

The "jim-crow" Republican league of Cuyahoga county, a few followers of "The Blossom Triplets," met last Friday night in the P. W. A. and issued a little "political hokum," including a proposed party "in honor of Maurice Maschke, Republican leader," to be held in Elks' auditorium, May 22d, at $1 a plate. Wonder if Mr. Maschke will "bite"? Admission tickets were on sale immediately after this decision, showing they had been printed in anticipation of the same. They need money! City Manager Daniel E. Morgan flatly contradicts "The Triplets'" much repeated statement that he ever promised them anything when he appeared before them in Senator Geo. H. Bender's office in the Leader Bldg., just prior to the ousting of former City Manager Wm. R. Hopkins. The failure of "The Triplets" to get the "boys" positions and jobs promised has already caused widespread local dissatisfaction.

Gladys Swarthout, who was born in Kansas City and who is still in her early twenties, will make her Cleveland premier in "La Gioconda" in Cleveland's seventh spring festival of the Metropolitan Opera Company during May 5 to May 10. She is a native of the same city which gave Marion Talley to grand opera. Besides "La Gioconda," she will be heard in "Cavalleria Rusticana" and in "Sadko."

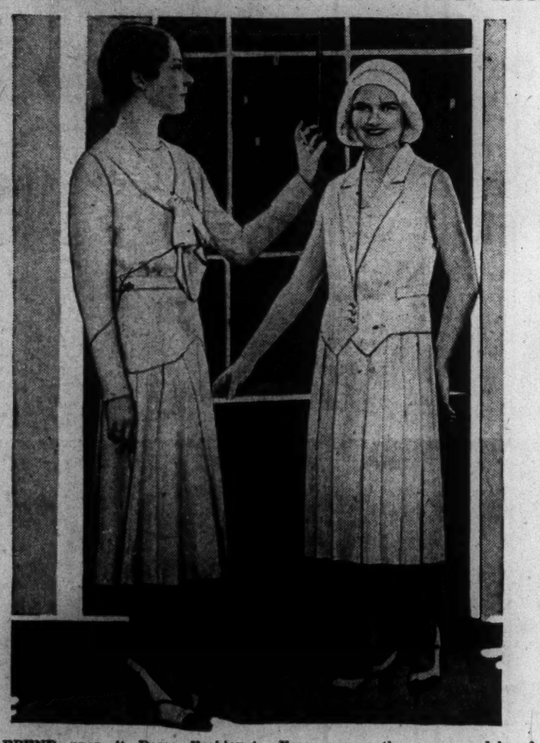
SPUN SILK SUCH AS SHANTUNG AND STRIPED SHIRTINGS ARE VOGUISH



DEPEND upon it Dame Fashion knows a good thing when she sees it, which accounts for the fuss and furore she is making over those perfectly lovely spun silks such as are so conspicuously being featured in the realm of sports weaves this season.

Choose striped silk shirting or one of the rough monotone weaves, especially shantung in any of the beloved pastel tints for sports wear, and you will be "playing the game" strictly according to the rules of the 1930 mode.

The beauty about the now-so-popular spun silks is that daintily colorful as most of them are, when it comes to laundering they issue forth from their tubbing looking fresher and lovelier than ever. Then, too, these new shirtings and shantungs, silk piques and twill weaves lend themselves most satisfactorily to neat tailoring, making them practical not only for simple frocks but for suits and ensembles as well.

From among the many models of spun silk such as are triumphant in the sports field today, two types have been selected for illustrations herewith. The tennis frock pictured at the left is styled of spun silk striped shirting—pin stripes in any color fancy dictates on a white ground. Note the normal waistline with that nipped-in effect which is so altogether chic and youthful, also the full-flared skirt. Black and white kid sports shoes accompany the frock.

Although the companion outfit looks like a one-piece frock, it is really a sleeveless dress with a short coatee of lumberjacket inspiration posed over it, proving that even the lumberjacket can be feminized. The fabric is spun silk in an alpaca-like construction in pastel blue. Blue and white kid sports shoes and a white felt hat complement this costume.

LILIES FOR THE "BRIDE'S BOUQUET," SATIN AND LACE FOR HER GOWN

AND she wore—well, if she is a 1930 bride, she will, this spring, be wearing either lustrous white satin, or lace, or the twain in combination. At any rate, whether of gleaming satin or lovely lace, or the two-in-one, her wedding robe, if fashion's dictates be faithfully followed, will make exquisite simplicity its outstanding feature rather than ostentatious display.

As to the "simplicity" which, without a doubt, sounds the keynote for modish bridal array, it may not be amiss to resolve the term into two classifications—sophisticated simplicity versus quaint simplicity.

There is, for instance, that exquisite simplicity, which is so formal, so stately, expressing itself in terms of lustrous satin whose purity of "lines" accents fabric distinction to the exclusion of any furbelows. And when the bride carries long-stemmed waxen-white calla lilies as is the fashion for brides to do this year, then, indeed, is a spirit of classic simplicity reflected.

Very youthful brides are choosing for the wedding gown styles whose cunning little puff sleeves, full skirts and high waistlines emphasize a simplicity which is both quaint and picturesque. The directoire bride, too, is in fashion this season, the romantic charm of this epoch of beauty being featured with exquisite simplicity.

Lace for the bridal robe registers on the spring program, either for the entire gown or in a trimming way. Decorative clusters of flowers made of the identical lace, posed here and there on the dress, are very new.

The lovely bride in the picture wears an adorable gown, the gleam of its ivory white satin contrasted with insets of alencon thread lace on the very full skirt, and the bodice as well. A fitted cap of lace accents the quaint simplicity which characterizes the entire ensemble.

Instead of the usual fanciful beribboned bouquet this pretty bride carries an armful of calla lilies, which, as said before, is quite the correct thing for brides to do, according to the plans which fashion has in mind for the spring wedding picture.

"Look back before you roll back and there won't be no come-back."

(By MARCUS A. DOW.)

A grown-up man stepped out of his house on a bright clear day. It was a quiet street, sun shinin', no wind, no rain, no fog. Nothin' to get his goat or interfere with his actions. He had two good eyes, was not deaf, was not bughouse—in fact nothin' wrong with him whatsoever.

His mental and physical construction was grade A. He wasn't in no particular hurry. Was on his way to a library to get a book for readin' that evenin'. So takin' everythin' into account he didn't have an alibi to cover what he done. I leave it to you.

He got in his car standin' at the curb, started the engine, throwed it in reverse and without turnin' his head, twistin' his neck or makin' any effort to look behind him, he backed that bus of his into another one standin' right in back of him. The bus he hit rolled down hill and smack into a baby carriage that was bein' wheeled across the street by a twelve-year-old girl and tips it over. There was a six-months-old baby in that go-cart. It landed on its little head! If you know anything about kids you know at the age their heads is kinda soft and tender-like on top. Well, it killed that poor little mite deader than a door nail. Now that guy wasn't speedin'. He wasn't even drunk, though you'd think he must have been cock-eyed.

He was just a plain drivin' fool, backin' up a car without lookin' behind first to see what was the lay of the land. Backin' up with a jerk by steppin' on the gas too hard and sudden. He smacked into that car like he didn't give a hoot. And he broke a mother's heart.

I know plenty cases where some poor innocent kid or a unlucky guy crankin' his bus has got bumped off or crippled fearful by some careless bozo backin' up sudden without lookin'.

Does your shin hurt a little? Let it be lesson to you.

Smooth Pavements Lower Expenses of Surfacing

Bump-consuming balloon tires and shock absorbers do not constitute an excuse for building wavy or uneven pavements.

Althought the modern automobile is a finely devised mechanism, comfort and low vehicle operating costs are still dependent upon the smoothness of the road surface.

Recognition of this is given by practically all state highway departments in the placement of hard-surfaced pavements. Samuel Eckels, chief engineer of the Pennsylvania department of highways, recently announced Pennsylvania's noteworthy achievement in building 276 miles of "excellent" concrete rural roads—pavements on which the motorist cannot detect any perceptible vibration.

The Pennsylvania demand for the grading "excellent" is that the "roughometer," a wheeled device that measures all tiny ridges and valleys in the pavement surface, shall not show more than 25 accumulated inches of roughness per mile.

No Cure-All for Many Troubles in Starting

While there is no cure-all for starting troubles, it is seldom necessary to go to such extremes as priming the spark plugs, running down the battery or flooding the cylinders, and finally towing the car for two or three blocks. Instead of trying to start the car by switching on the ignition, pulling out the choke and then touching the starter, it is far easier if the choke is drawn out and the starter turned over a few times before the ignition is switched on. If the engine turns over slowly with the starter it can be made to turn over easier by leaving the gears in neutral and pushing out the clutch.

THE MOTOR QUIZ

(How Many Can You Answer?)

Q. How many tractors are on farms in the United States?

Ans. Approximately 775,000.

Q. What states lead in number of tractors on farms?

Ans. Illinois, Iowa, Ohio, Wisconsin, California, Kansas, New York, Minnesota, Indiana, in order named.

Q. How much was spent for road construction and maintenance in United States in 1929?

Ans. More than $2,500,000,000, it is estimated.

Q. Is there a drain on the battery when spark plug gaps are too wide?

Ans. Yes, because the starter is used more to effect a start. Spark plug gaps should be inspected at least twice yearly and adjusted according to the car manufacturers' recommendations.

Wood Blocks Assist in Jacking Up Automobile

If all roads were level and smooth, the problem of jacking up a front or back wheel to change tires would always be simple. Unfortunately, however, there are many times when the normal safe place for a tire change, off the paved portion of the road, presents unexpected difficulties. There may be a deep rut exactly where the jack should be placed, or the road may slope in such a way that the car is likely to roll off the jack. A pair of wood blocks shaped as shown will prove useful in such emergencies. One will serve as a chock for the car on a hill. Two, four, six, or even eight inches can be added to the height of the jack to reach up from a hollow depending on how the blocks are piled. The two blocks bolted together will support the front axle with both wheels off the ground when adjusting, greasing, and so on. For a large car or truck the blocks should measure approximately 8 by 12 inches, with the thickness 4 inches at one end and 2 inches at the other.—Popular Science Monthly.

Jacking up a car on uneven or rutted ground is easy if you have these blocks to put the jack on and chock the car. At right are shown the blocks ready to use if both wheels are to be jacked at one time.

AUTOMOBILE HINTS

Our reaction, as a pedestrian, to this new rubber type of pavement will probably be upward.

A mile of concrete pavement will shrink approximately 1 inches for the first 12 days after setting.

Engines really breathe through their breather pipes. That is why vented caps are used on these units.

Perhaps some day it will be practical to steer an automobile by talking to it, but it never will be possible to change the color of a traffic light by tooting at it.

It makes no difference what the weather may be; the three commonest causes of overheating generally are the same. In the order of their frequency they are: lack of water, lack of oil, and a broken fan belt.

GIANT NEW DOUBLE-DECKER MOTORBUS

The giant new motorbus, a double-decker of a California company, which carries 53 passengers and is capable of 70 miles an hour. For continuous point-to-point speed the bus can undergo a complete substitution of its power plant in but 15 minutes—a new note in motor coach travel. Railroads change the locomotives of their cross-country trains—the new bus simply changes motors.

ORGANIZATION TO VOTE FOR FRIENDS

PARTY LINES ARE OUT

Republicans Worried as New Element Oppears in Their Coming Campaign for Seats.

Washington, D. C.—To the wet "bloc" in the approaching congressional elections there must now be added a new "bloc"; and the effect of both "blocs" is to increase the chances of the Democrats for winning control of the next House of Representatives. Oscar De Priest, Republican Afro-American representative in the lower House of Congress from the first district of Illinois, in Chicago, is principally responsible for the emergence of the newest "bloc" which is called "the peoples' movement." The purpose of this movement essentially is to vote for Republican candidates or Democratic candidates or independent candidates in accordance solely with their attitude toward our race. That such a by-partisan or non-partisan "bloc" should be organized by a Republican representative is almost without precedent. Authentic reports are that it is going strong in northern and border states congressional districts in which our voters are thickly congregated.

Causes of Dissatisfaction.

It might readily prove decisive in many of those districts, and it has its origin in four main discontents.

First—The Republican presidential campaign managers of last year discarded all efforts to please Afro-Americans in favor of efforts to please the southern whites.

Second—The existing Republican administration has appointed virtually none of our voters to office.

Third—Our membership in the Republican national committee has been practically wiped out.

Fourth—John J. Parker of North Carolina nominated for a justice of the U. S. Supreme Court.

Informed professional politicians here take this fire extremely seriously. In the three border states of Missouri and Kentucky and Maryland and in the middlewestern states of Illinois and Indiana and Ohio and in the four eastern states of Pennsylvania and New Jersey and New York and Massachusetts, there were 1,156,298 of our people of voting age at the time of the last census. By natural increase and by immigration from the far south there are many more now. They have abundantly proved that they can vote for Democrats.

Candidates for Annapolis Cadets.

The Harlem region of New York city contributes heavily to sending to the federal House of Representatives the Democratic Congressmen Anthony J. Griffin and Joseph A. Cavagan. Mr. Cavagan in recognition of the situation has Afro-American youths on his list of nominees for examination for admission to the Annapolis U. S. naval academy. Congressman Oscar DePriest's "people's movement" is based on the proposition that all of us should be as willing as our people of Harlem are to suit their partisan politics to the race's interests.

A painstaking count shows that in the border states and in the north and east there are at least 25 congressional districts, in which our voters are plentiful enough and are becoming independent enough to be able to make themselves possibly the determining weight or factor in an election. That in these districts there will be defections, next fall, from Republican candidates to the Democratic candidates or to independent candidates now seems virtually inevitable. How large these defections will be is a matter of guess, but that in certain instances they may well turn the scale is sure.

Need Only Fifty-Three.

The Democrats will be swept to victory, this fall, if swept they are, dominantly by two forces—the wet "bloc" and the Afro-American "bloc" neither of which have they striven, as a party, to create. They now have 165 seats in the House of Representatives. They need to gain but 53 seats in order to have a majority in it. Today, in the House of Representatives there are 54 Republicans coming from districts which were carried by the Democrats either in 1922 or 1926. It is clear enough, accordingly, that on general theory the electing of a Democratic majority in the House is thinkable, and, in the special circumstances of this year, it is certainly within practical possibility.

AN APPRECIATION.

(By Joseph C. Manning)

Prof. Neval H. Thomas, Washington, D. C., educator and outstanding citizen, was a foremost bulwark of human justice. He was impregnable and immovable. There was no walking or riding over him or his fearless and righteous stand. Pity that petty jealousies sought, now and then, to discourage him. He was too big to be overcome by that, however. He went right on doing his duty marvelously well.

The life-work of this great man, this humanitarian and unyielding contender for just principles is known to his friends. The spirit of the unselfish worker makes alive and secure the splendid work he achieved. We honored the man living. We loved him for his good deeds. We hold him in sacred memory.

Sincerely,
Joseph C. Manning.

Metropolitan's New Opera "Sadko" on Cleveland Program

FREDERICK JAGEL

Frederick Jagel, the American tenor, will be heard in the title role of "Sadko," the new sensational opera of Rimsky-Korsakoff, which the Metropolitan will bring to Cleveland during the Spring Opera Season at Cleveland's Public Auditorium, week of May 5 to 10.

Julia Claussen, who also will appear in Il Trovatore as Azucena, will sing as Boussiaevna in Sadko.

Sadko was first presented by Metropolitan this winter and in the opinion of critics Ohio is most fortunate in its inclusion during the coming season at Cleveland.

Leonora Corona, "the Texas Nightingale," made her Cleveland debut as a grand opera singer last season during the Cleveland Opera Festival, will again sing with the New York Metropolitan Opera Company for its seventh annual engagement at Cleveland, May 5 to 10. She will appear in the title role of "Leonora" in Il Trovatore to be presented Saturday evening

JOIN THE DEMOCRATIC PARTY?

Our young local contemporary has gone over to the Democratic party, "hook, line and sinker," it seems. Read the following, from its issue of April 12, '30:

Thirteen enthusiastic young men met at the office of Dr. F. H. Hendricks, two weeks ago and talked over plans for the formation of a young men's Democratic club. On last Friday these men met again at the same place and organized, called themselves the Pioneer Democratic Club. Two or three years ago Cleveland had never heard of a local Democratic club among our people. It was more of a disgrace to be a Democrat. Since certain drives have been launched in behalf of the Democratic organization, colored Democrats have become popular, and even prominent Republicans are talking of joining the ranks.—The Call-Post.

There, now. Or as a brother, recently from "down home," has it, "Dah, now!" Our young friend is wrong. There was "a local Democratic club among our people" here in Cleveland long before he stopped wearing "dydies" down in "the Old Dominion" (Virginia). There is, too, some question as to the correctness of the young man's "popular" statement in the foregoing. And as for "prominent Republicans joining the ranks" of the party of U. S. Senators Cole Blease of South Carolina, Tom Heflin of Alabama, Pat Harrison of Mississippi and their kidney, heaven forbid. That would be "jumping from the frying pan into the fire." We can "see" an Afro-American member of almost any political party except the Democratic party and we have done all in our power for more than forty years to encourage independency of thought and political action; but can never advocate joining the Democratic party which is controlled by the South. We can understand the support, at times, of friendly northern Democrats, in state, county, city and village elections. But only in extreme cases—where the provocation is so great and of such vital racial interest—could we think of supporting Democrats for federal elective positions—electors and members of the Congress. Never can we advocate joining the Blease, Heflin, Harrison outfit.

An Appreciation.
